MMA Memories: Friends are what make my memories come alive. I will remember most of the friends I made because they are the ones that always made sure I was safe. Unfortunately, I remember the friends I lost and looking back I wish those falling outs never happened. I know that there were many more good times than bad. Long nights filled with partying or cramming for an impossible test, which only led to early mornings where everything was lived over again in class. Let's face it, without the people in our class and our school, we wouldn't have any memories at all because together we all made memories together in some way or another. Brady, words of wisom from Capt. Benway, Capt. McGourthy's format and the Gong Show. That last night in St. Thomas with all the other seniors at the Shipwreck, followed by a 0600 sailing muster. Christmas lights around the nav lab. Helping resurrect the band, off-roading in a golf cart, "hiring Noons," "dismantling " a piano, and meetings with Page, all with Andy and Lou.
